tragedy took place about five miles from town yesterday evening just before dark. The town and country are in a tumult of excitement. The facts are not fully known. About all we know is that two young men named Brown, brothers, were shot and killed by a young man named Paris. There are two other men implicated in the killing, one of them a brother of Paris, the other, Deputy Marshal J. T. Armstrong, whose home is in DeKalb county. The parties were all drinking, and there seems to have ex-isted for some time a fued between the Paris boys and the Brown boys. The two men above referred to-Paris and Armstrong-drove into town together this morning from the country, where they stayed last night, within a few hundred yards of the killing. They wagon. The Wheat Crop?in !Excess of Last Year-Corn Poing Well and Cotton to Good Condition, Though a Little Late.

From an Gerasional Correspondent, i BETHEL SPRINGS, M'NAIRY COUNTY, June 18 - The crop prospect of this locality, upon which depends the welfare and prosperity of our people, was never more promising under the circumstances. Farmers begun business early in spring under the most discouraging circumstances, though they went to work with a vim that was calculated to bring success; necessity, which acts as a stimulus to industry and economy, is, I think, having the desired effect just now. The corn crop is very fine, in good condition, and exceeds last year's crop about twenty-five per cent. Cotton is a little late, though good condition and growing rapid. Wheat, which is now being barvested, is greatly in excess of last year's crop in area, will yield a great deal more and better grain than was generally expected. It will be a great help, for it is much needed just now. Other small grains and grasses promise a fair yield. Stock is doing as well as is expected at this season. Stock raisers are giving more attention to their stock than usual, which is of vital importance. Our cember at Mr. Freeland's house be-farmers are living frugal and have tween Brecher and Bowen. The entertainment at James's park to-morrow will be one of the grandest, if not the grandest ever given in Memphis. The programme is one of the most attractive we have ever seen, and at four o'clock in the afternoon The counsel stated that there were cases where men had lied to save the honor of women with whom they had intrigues, and that in such instances it was thought to be no sin; and he quoted several cases as examples. Counsel then quoted from a sermon of Beecher, in which he said that the first thing after committing a crime was to purify yourself from it, and then take counsel from some friend. This was the teachings of Beecher, and the question was whether he had acted on his own theory, and convinced his own mind and conscience that this was a case where he should commit that which, under other circumstances, would be a grievous sin. Beecher had often shown the tendencies which beset a man who lied even in the court of his own mind, where he endeavored to be-fog and deceive himself. Mr. Beecher says he does not marvel that there is so fond mammas and dear papas, imbued with the glory of having the prize baby in this year of anniversaries, for fear much lying, but the marvel to him was that there was so little of it. Counsel quoted from a sermon of the defendant that their offspring may be a little too old at the next centennial, 1976, are busy preparing their darlings' noses in the "Our Relations to the Atonement "in which Mr. Beecher spoke of the idea of a God suffering for a world, and that there were some men who felt that they had no need of an atonement, and, says Mr. Beecher, "I do not believe in its need."
